(Annex 6, Appendix 1)

(BRAIN) [Consortium] 1. Start of public call for Project 2. Preparation of research Managers (PMs) group 3. Submission of proposal from representative organization to which the PM belongs (requirement of e-Rad must be input by PM) 4. Examination by a board of Application of "status of trustees composed by competition eligibility" from external experts, and others the representative organization (no need for 5. Adoption of PM. local government) After determining the representative organization 6.Establishing a consortium to which the adopted PM (Individual agreement to belongs, amount of research Consortium Terms and fund will be decided based on Condition, joint signature the designated procedures agreement on joining to for refining the proposed Consortium or joint Research and Development research agreement Project (including the between organizations shall addition/withdrawal of be concluded) and collaborative research submitting its copy to institutes and cooperative BRAIN organizations) and for Production and submission approving and deciding the of "BRAIN-commissioned portfolio, and others test and research implementation plan" Submission of "status of 7.Verifying "BRAINcompetition eligibility" from commissioned test and the representative research implementation organization (no need for plan" and "status of local government) competition eligibility"

1. Administrative Flow from Public Call to Conclusion of Contract

8.Examination of contracts (discretionary contracts examination committee)

9.Concluding research trust contract

- %1. The discretionary contracts examination committee in BRAIN will examine the contract. The documents are subject to be required for the examination. PM must submit any documents required promptly when BRAIN request them even after the decision of adopting PM.
- ※2. Expenses for relevant research and development after the date of conclusion of the contract are subject to the expenditures of BRAIN-commissioned test and research. Please note that expenses incurred before the date of conclusion of the contract are not covered.